and

[REDACTED]

Respondents.

Case Number UPL 23-04

JOINT MOTION TO APPROVE AMENDED CONSENT DECREE

Relator, the Ohio State Bar Association (“OSBA”), and Respondents, Legally Mine, LLC (hereinafter “Legally Mine”), and Daniel McNeff, through Respondents’ counsel, Alvin Mathews, hereby move the Board on the Unauthorized Practice of Law and the Ohio Supreme Court to approve the Consent Decree. This pleading, along with the Motion to Approve Consent Decree, filed November 10, 2023, and the Supplemental Motion to Approve Consent Decree, filed February 27, 2024, is intended to be considered contemporaneously with the Amended Consent Decree as if fully incorporated within. As explained below, the parties have amended the Consent Decree to address the reasons raised in the July 17, 2024, Order Denying Parties’ Joint Motion to Approve Consent Decree.

1. The Consent Decree eliminates any request or recommendation that Legally Mine engage Ohio Licensed Attorneys to provide their services or address any concerns of existing Ohio Clients. Relator and Respondent have jointly requested that the Court order Respondents to cease and desist the unauthorized practice of law.
2. The Consent Decree provides that Relator shall provide the option of a full refund to existing Ohio Clients.
3. The Consent Decree corrects the errors in addressing the aggravating and mitigating factors noted by the Board.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, the parties jointly move this Honorable Board for the resolution of the OSBA's Complaint under the terms of the Consent Decree submitted herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
