

Exhibit 2

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- [REDACTED] employment with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for attempted subversion of company accounts and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine

■■■■ ■■■■

As arbitration among the owners of Legally Mine has concluded, we are informing you of the following Final Award and rulings from the arbitration completed on September 15, 2020:

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- ■■■■ ■■■■ employment or any contractual relationship with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for participating in criminal fraud with the United States Government, lying under oath regarding a $1.4M PPP loan and accepting funds therefrom, violations of fiduciary duties owed to the company and its ownership, participation in the theft of company property and funds (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine

■■■■■■ ■■■■■■

As arbitration among the owners of Legally Mine has concluded, we are informing you of the following Final Award and rulings from the arbitration completed on September 15, 2020:

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■ employment or any contractual relationship with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for participating in criminal fraud with the United States Government, violations of fiduciary duties owed to the company and its ownership, participation in the theft of company property (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine

██████ Knudsen,

As arbitration among the owners of Legally Mine has concluded, we are informing you of the following Final Award and rulings from the arbitration completed on September 15, 2020:

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- █████ Knudsen’s employment with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for participation in criminal theft of company property, participation in federal felony identity fraud with Lindsey for impersonating Ammon McNeff, federal felony identity fraud for impersonating █████ (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), and multiple violations of the company handbook. owed to the company and its ownership, participation in the theft of company property and funds (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine

Linsley Thompson,

As arbitration among the owners of Legally Mine has concluded, we are informing you of the following Final Award and rulings from the arbitration completed on September 15, 2020:

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- Lindsey Thompson’s employment with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for violating his fiduciary duties to the company and owners, including but not limited to impersonating Ammon McNeff on at least three (3) occasions with third parties (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), participation in the fraudulent filing with the State of Utah with Articles of Conversion of Legally Mine to a C-Corporation, theft of company property and funds, lying under oath regarding a $1.4M PPP loan and accepting funds therefrom, and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine

■■■■ ■■■■

As arbitration among the owners of Legally Mine has concluded, we are informing you of the following Final Award and rulings from the arbitration completed on September 15, 2020:

“Daniel McNeff is hereby expelled as manager of Legally Mine effective immediately. Daniel McNeff further is permanently enjoined from serving as Legally Mine’s manager (as the term “manager” is defined in the existing Legally Mine Operating Agreement).”

“From the date of issuance of the Award and thereafter, Dan has no authority to act as managing member (including as manager) over or to exert managerial authority with respect to Legally Mine.”

“Unless Legally Mine acquires a legal interest in RHM or PROcure in the future, and absent unanimous consent of Legally Mine’s owners, Dan is hereby permanently enjoined from causing or allowing Legally Mine to make payments to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of those entities.”

$498,854.74 in attorney fees and costs were also awarded to Ammon and Matt.

As the only owners with management authority of Legally Mine, the following is effective immediately:

- ■■■■ ■■■■ employment with Legally Mine, LLC is terminated, for participation in criminal theft of company property, participation in federal felony identity fraud with Lindsey for impersonating Ammon McNeff, participation in criminal theft of company property and funds (Orem PD Case #20OR24205), lying under oath regarding a $1.4M PPP loan and accepting funds therefrom, and multiple violations of the company handbook.

Due to your continued actions intending to harm owners of the company and theft of company property, you are hereby permanently restricted from entering the business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices.

Until further notice, the Legally Mine business premises, including the parking lot, or remote offices, are restricted to any employees or contractors who have not been cleared to re-enter the building, or continue remote work. Criminal investigations are currently being conducted, along with internal investigations, to determine the full extent of the wrongful and illegal conduct.

Any actions towards or against the company or its owners that are unlawful or contrary to the arbitrator's rulings (such as submitting documents on behalf of the owners without their knowledge or approval or attempting to subvert company accounts, fraudulently impersonating owners or employees, attempting to disrupt the ordered "status quo" amongst the parties, working on Procure or RHM on Legally Mine's time - or meeting with Dan on managerial matters), will be met with the full appropriate legal action.

Sincerely,

Ammon McNeff, Owner Legally Mine
Matthew McNeff, Owner Legally Mine